The information in this Form will be used by MIGA to determine your entitlement to indemnity pursuant to your policy of insurance for the relevant policy period and to register relevant details on MIGA's claims database. MIGA may provide your personal information to its related bodies corporate and to third parties including your insurance agent or broker, insurers, reinsurers, reinsurance brokers, lawyers, actuaries, auditors and medical boards in Australia and overseas. If you are an employee (or you are contracted to provide medical services), MIGA may also provide personal and other information to your employer or prospective employer about your claims and circumstances history where you have authorised your employer or prospective employer to receive such information.

MIGA is required by law to provide to statutory authorities (including Medicare Australia and Centrelink) upon request any information that you provide, including information in this Form that may be relevant to determining an entitlement to an indemnity or subsidy scheme payment under legislation or satisfying any statutory charge.

If you refuse to provide information required by MIGA, or fail to provide accurate information, or refuse the use or disclosure of information, this may compromise your entitlement to services from, and cover under current or future insurance contracts issued by MIGA. In most circumstances you can access information which MIGA holds about you by contacting MIGA but sometimes there will be reasons why that access is not possible, in which case you will be told why.
