

Risk Management Conference

Contemporary and thought-provoking risk management education presented in an interactive environment and designed specifically for doctors.

You won't want to miss this event!

With a 9.00am to 1.00pm running time, this will be the best half-day conference you will attend this year.

Recent cases – a forensic examination

After the year we've had and the distractions that it has caused, it's timely to take stock and see what's been happening in the medicolegal environment. This session will present a selection of recent cases from our claims files. What can we learn from matters that have come under judicial and regulatory scrutiny? Hear from our legal team and your colleagues. They will use these cases to illustrate areas of concern and to provide sage advice on providing care and managing professional relationships.
